Logan, a vibrant young girl based on the kindness of the author's 2 young daughters. She lives the typical life of an awesome kid, and has a lot to learn in the process.

Lucky, the wise best friend side-kick to Logan. Inspired by the Smith family Great Dane, he is the pleasant voice of reason. He will always be there when help is needed, but can he help?

Mom, Logan's loving guardian and the catalyst to most, if not all, the learned lessons. While she is always there, you won't see her face (as pictured). She is the loving mystery.

Randii Smith, a former school teacher with a passion for books leverages her experiences from the classroom and her busy days as a mother to teach young readers & listeners through easy self-help strategies.
